_____ has my permission to participate in the La Junta Parks & Recreation sports program. I certify that my child is fully capable of participation in the designated sport and that my child is healthy and have no physical or mental disabilities that would restrict my child from participating in these activities. I understand that there are certain risks of injury in this activity, as well as in traveling and other related activities involved in my child's participation and I am willing to assume on behalf of my child. In the event my child is injured, I hereby give the La Junta Parks & Recreation permission to arrange transportation for my child to a medical facility and/or to provide my child with emergency treatment or first aid. The child's family will be responsible for all of the associated medical expenses. I waive and release any rights and claims I may have against La Junta Parks & Recreation, City of La Junta and all members of its sports programs for any and all damages which may be suffered by my child in connection with his/her associations with the program. I accept responsibility for returning any and all equipment used by my child to La Junta Parks & Recreation or agree to replace it if lost or damaged.
